

The Gathering of Baptists

A community of caring and learning

Imagining a new economy

Fall Harvest

Together, we will explore what the Bible says about economics and economic injustice and envision new possibilities for a sustainable economy.

23 and 24 October 2009

Friday: Afternoon conversation circle, Evening soirée.

Saturday: Exploration and panel discussion.

Woodbine Heights Baptist Church
1171 Woodbine Avenue
Toronto ON M4C 4E1

Registration:

$35 ($25 members) includes Saturday lunch

To facilitate meal and room planning, please register before 16 October by contacting:

bob paterson-watt
registergb@gatheringbaptists.ca
Tel: 416-467-1462
1171 Woodbine Ave.
Toronto ON M4C 4E1

www.gatheringbaptists.ca/Fall/index.html

Speaker:

Patricia Dutcher-Walls

Associate Dean and Professor of Hebrew Bible at the Vancouver School of Theology, Patricia is a Presbyterian minister active in the church through positions in campus chaplaincy, part-time congregational leadership, preaching, and social ministries.

Panelists:

Marnie Saskin

Marnie is interested in urban sustainable living and in particular food security. She co-ordinates the Woodbine Heights hub of Not Far From The Tree.

Benjamin Watts

Benjamin is a Commerce graduate of Ryerson University, responsible for research and planning at SIRIUS Satellite Radio Canada. A Tri-athlete, he volunteers at Karma Food Co-op.

Angela Elzinga Cheng

Angela lives in Junia House, an intentional Christian community house in a Toronto neighbourhood with her husband, two children, and other community members. She works at FoodShare Toronto.

The Gathering of Baptists

A community of caring and learning

Imagining a new economy

Fall Harvest

Together, we will explore what the Bible says about economics and economic injustice and envision new possibilities for a sustainable economy.

23 and 24 October 2009

Friday: Afternoon conversation circle, Evening soirée.

Saturday: Exploration and panel discussion.

Woodbine Heights Baptist Church
1171 Woodbine Avenue
Toronto ON M4C 4E1

Registration:

$35 ($25 members) includes Saturday lunch

To facilitate meal and room planning, please register before 16 October by contacting:

bob paterson-watt
registergb@gatheringbaptists.ca
Tel: 416-467-1462
1171 Woodbine Ave.
Toronto ON M4C 4E1

www.gatheringbaptists.ca/Fall/index.html

Speaker:

Patricia Dutcher-Walls

Associate Dean and Professor of Hebrew Bible at the Vancouver School of Theology, Patricia is a Presbyterian minister active in the church through positions in campus chaplaincy, part-time congregational leadership, preaching, and social ministries.

Panelists:

Marnie Saskin

Marnie is interested in urban sustainable living and in particular food security. She co-ordinates the Woodbine Heights hub of Not Far From The Tree.

Benjamin Watts

Benjamin is a Commerce graduate of Ryerson University, responsible for research and planning at SIRIUS Satellite Radio Canada. A Tri-athlete, he volunteers at Karma Food Co-op.

Angela Elzinga Cheng

Angela lives in Junia House, an intentional Christian community house in a Toronto neighbourhood with her husband, two children, and other community members. She works at FoodShare Toronto.